Dionysus Party

The gods are celebrating. Pull up a chair.

Greek mythology

About the game

The god of wine throws a feast above the clouds, and the whole of Olympus is invited. Apollo and Aphrodite join their host on the reels, a golden goblet shines among the jewelled card suits, and the grape bowl is never empty.

The grape bowl opens the free spins. There the golden bust wild collects every Zeus coin on the board, and a laurel wreath shows how far the round has climbed through its multiplier levels.

The feast waits for no one: an ante bet and a bonus buy are on the table where the operator allows them.

Lines & collect. Line wins in the base game; in free spins a wild collector scoops up every coin on screen and climbs a multiplier ladder.
